Mackerel News.

Salt mackerel receipts have been light this week, only about 1000 barrels having been landed by the fleet. For the corresponding week last year 900 barrels were landed.

The draggers have landed about all the fresh mackerel this week.

The New England catch of salt mackerel to date is about 85,000 barrels.

The imports of salt mackerel at Boston to date were 21,426 barrels against 17,282 barrels last year.

Receipts of fresh mackerel at Boston this season thus far has been over 53,000 barrels.

Maiden Trip.

Sch. Rob Roy of this port, arrived at Boston this morning from her maiden trip, having 28,000 pounds of fresh mixed fish and 800 pounds of halibut. The vessel was afforded an excellent opportunity to prove her seaworthiness, being out in the gale, which she weathered finely, and the captain and her crew are exceptionally strong in their praises of the seagoing qualities of the craft.

Mackerel News.

A large number of the mackerel fleet are in this morning. The skippers report seeing no fish since a week ago Saturday and they have cruised all over the bay and alongshore. Some of the fleet have brought in their catch of Saturday and will market them, while most of the vessels have no fish.

Captains and crews of the seiners are pretty well discouraged at the poor outlook and the most of them have come in to haul up for the season or to shift their crafts into some other branches of the fishing business.

It is evident that the mackerel season of 1900 is very near its close. A few vessels will undoubtedly continue into November but the majority will be out of it before that time.

The fare of sch. Helen Miller Gould sold to John Pew & Son at $16.50 per bbl.

About all the netting fleet have given up for the season, which on the whole has been a very prosperous one for them.

Sch. Helen Miller Gould will now fit for a late Cape Shore seining trip.

Sch. Priscilla Smith kept off for the Cape Shore Sunday.

Sch. Nellie Dixon was in port to-day and left her seineboat.

A few of the netters were out last night but did not do much, the high boat having about 50 fish.

Fishing Fleet Movements.

Sch. Oliver Wendell Holmes is fitting for a Newfoundland salt herring trip under command of Capt. John Couzens.

Had Bad Weather.

Sch. Oregon, Capt. Daniel Grant, arrived this morning from a fresh halibut trip with a fare of 18,000 halibut, 20,000 fresh cod and 10,000 salt cod. Capt. Grant reports disagreeable weather throughout the trip, but his vessel escaped without any disasters. He reports speaking schs. Nannie C. Bohlin, Arbitrator and Niagara on the banks recently.

Bank Cod Sale.

The fare of Bank cod of sch. Conductor sold to John Pew & Son at $3.50 and $2.30 per cwt. for large and medium, another advance on previous sales.

Halibut Sale.

The fare of sch. Oregon sold to the New England Fish Co. for 13 1-2 and nine cents for white and gray.

Big Trip.

Sch. Maggie and May, Capt. Alex McEachern, arrived from her second salt bank trip of the season this morning with a dandy fare, 300,000 pounds of salt cod. Capt. McEachern is keeping up his reputation for big fares.
